WELCOME TO THE ISSUE

This issue of Modeliste is a must for the well-dressed woman with a well-dressed mind.

A collaboration of inspiring designers and creative visionaries have teamed up to share their unique stories, concepts and influences in our Labels We Love. All of us at Modeliste feel so privileged to share their legacies, what trends they're setting and what's yet to come. It reminds us how fashion is a filter for the culture of the time, and not simply about the clothes.

More than ever, this issue has a strong message - one of individuality, so who better to showcase the prevailing mood than our cover model, Catt Sadler. Catt is one of those women that people for whatever reason tend to just gravitate towards.

Her life both on and off the screen proves that women can be strong, successful, provocative, insightful and hard working while maintaining an open, honest, fun-loving, playful, free spirited and adventurous nature.

We were privileged to have our Cover shoot amidst a sea of turquoise water at the Sheraton Hacienda del Mar, in Los Cabos, Mexico . With uninterrupted, picturesque views, the luxurious property's design expresses the best of a culture, traditional warm and welcoming hospitality and iconic beauty.

It is our hope to bring you inspiration filled with a vivid and colourful vision of what we love most-- fashion, beauty, travel and style. Welcome to the May issue of Modeliste.

With love and gratitude,
Amy

Dry, breaking, slow-growing lashes ?

You probably apply a night cream on your face every night but... have you thought of giving a similar treatment to your eyelashes, which have suffered even more than your skin ?

DOUBLE-CILS is a nutritive cure for lashes that is applied like a mascara and helps lashes grow.

Its natural active ingredients strengthen, fortify, condition and protect the lashes to enable them to become healthy, long and resistant while giving them a natural and silky appearance.

Apply at night on clean lashes. Leave on all night.

MODEL DIARIES Q&A with CATT SADLER

What originally got you interested in pursuing Journalism?

I grew up loving people's stories and so I was intrinsically a curious person. I found myself in theater and what not but yet I love the art of storytelling and so by the time I got to college, I decided Journalism was the way to go.

What's do you like best about being a Journalist?

My career has evolved so much, that my daily trade and contributions are that of a host on E. I love is that everyday is a new day. It's really exciting and a real thrill to report on pop culture. My most rewarding moments are when I'm doing an interview with someone captivating and original.

What is your favorite Red Carpet memory?

There are two. One is 10 years ago when I started E! News. I was the very first person to open our show Live From the Red Carpet and I had just come from local television, so it was a milestone. So it was that moment when the director was counting down "We're live in 5.4.3.2" that moment was really rad. Very surreal.

And the other one is when I got to interview Oprah at the Governor's Ball and again we are live and she had just won an Oscar and I got to interview her and I got to tell her that she really inspired me to be a broadcaster.

How would you describe your everyday style?

I really got the fashion bug from E! News because you're thrust into the limelight and your interviewing celebrities. I got to work with amazing stylists right away and I really got to learn about fashion and what works for me and my body type. I would describe my style as chic relaxed and a little edgy. And less is more.

What is your favorite type of jewelry accessory?

I like interesting pieces. So for example, my first big jewelry splurge was an Hermes cuff. It's so bold and so distinct and so beautiful.

I'll never forget I was at a party wearing it, and Kris Jenner said she loved my cuff and that Kanye had got it for Kim as a present. We wore some cool pieces in some of the shoots we did for Modeliste. In one of the shots, I'm wearing this gold choker and it looks like a caged piece and it's just gorgeous.

You're also a spokesperson of the company Murad. What are some of your favorite products?

Rapid Age Spot and Pigment Lightening Serum. It's a serum that you can put on twice a day and it reduces wrinkles and age spots. I use all of their cleansers. I rotate between all of them.

You're also a very active individual. What gets you motivated to stay fit?

To be honest, I just feel better. I'm also really inspired by my job, to do what I do for a living. I just left a Physique 57 class. I've been alternating workouts- hot yoga and running and I just feel so great. I try to motivate people on snapchat and remind them that you will always feel better when you workout. I've never worked out and wished I hadn't.

What is your holy grail favorite beauty product?

Tom Ford bronzers for contouring, Becca Foundation, and the Too Faced Chocolate eye shadow palette.

Where would you love to travel to that you haven't been yet?

I need to go to Asia. It's a dream of mine to go to the Phillipines, Cambodia, Tokyo. I'm obsessed with Japanese food. I just need to get the time off.

What is your biggest pet peeve?

I can't deal with negativity. Bad attitudes in general, I don't have much of a tolerance for.

What is your most used emoji?

Probably the half smiling kissy face (with the heart)

What is your most played song in your iTunes library?

Rihanna – Same Old Mistake. The new Beyonce Lemonade album is groundbreaking. Currently listening and more obsessed with each listen.

What celebrity, currently alive or not, would you most want to meet?

Audrey Hepburn

What was the most recent book you read?

All the Light We Cannot See

What is your ideal day off when you're not working?

Not having a single appointment or commandment to do, staying in wearing PJs with my kids, and it would probably end up somewhere beautiful like Malibu. I've fallen in love with California, so maybe a day out at sea with some Mexican food, margaritas and sunshine.

What was your favorite part of the shoot?

If I had to pick one, it would probably be the second set-up that we had. The sun was setting, it was the first gown I had put on and it was a gold sequined robe-like situation so I felt like such a goddess in this gown. It was my favorite time of day and the music was playing and everything was gelling and it was like "wow-this is really my life". Everyone on set was just phenomenal.

Why do you love Modeliste?

I can't think of a thing I don't like. I love the way fashion and beauty is very elevated and it feels special and it doesn't feel like every magazine out there but at the same time it's accessible. You actually can take away things from the magazine that you can take away things to use in your everyday life. It's beautiful from front to back.

HARD AS NAILS MAVALA

Dry? Weak? Brittle? You need DIY Nail Rehab

MAVALA
Scientifique
$23 mavala-usa.com

Oh, the dryness of Winter weather, the elements of Spring, and of course all of the hottest nail polish trends and damage from gels and Shellac can leave your nails looking lacklustre, brittle and weak. Mavala Scientifique infuses a little TLC into your tips (so you can get back to enjoying your favorite Spring mani colors, stat).

Neither a base nor a nail polish, Mavala has an innovative and unique formula designed to instantly penetrate the nail and strengthen splitting, soft, flaking or splitting nails. The tip of the nail is the most fragile, most unprotected part and susceptible to breakage, which is why it is the most essential part of the nail to be strengthened. Mavala's formula hardens the nail plate so that the nail can restore its normal growth keeping nails supple as well as help prevent peeling.

As a Beauty Editor, I have tried numerous products as an attempt improve my weak, easily damaged nails, but none have worked with such speed and made such a striking difference as the Mavala Scientifique system. It's also perfect for protecting nails under gel manicures! So, for anyone who's long sought for a nail restoring treatment that works, Mavala Scientifique is revolutionary.

SPRING/SUMMER HAIRCOLOR TRENDS 2016

MANE EVENT

with TRACY CUNNINGHAM

“One of the most important things to consider when switching up your hair color is your skin tone”, says Redken Celebrity Colorist Tracey Cunningham. Just as you would change your wardrobe and makeup with each season, you should also change your haircolor since your skin tone can lighten or darken one to two shades as the seasons change. To help achieve a look that best matches your hair and skin tone, Tracey uses Redken’s revolutionary color formulas to create her favorite hair color trends for Spring/Summer 2016.

TREND #1

THE KHLOE EFFECT

“Khloe Kardashian has created a domino effect of brunettes wanting to go lighter. It has made people realize that it can be done and look beautiful and healthy, but it’s also important to realize that it is a process that also requires maintenance both in the salon and at-home. With Khloe, I used Redken Flash Lift over the course of at least three appointments to slowly bring her blonde in stages. Using Redken Shades EQ Gloss as a glaze helped to make her color shine and create a natural and healthy radiance.” – Tracey Cunningham

TREND #2

LIGHTENED ENDS

“The blending of highlights and balayage together allows Chrissy Teigen to wear her highlights without having to frequently touch up in-between appointments and creates a seamless look without an obvious line of demarcation between the roots and the ends. Using the new! Free Hand Creamy Lightener from Redken’s Blonde Idol Professional Haircolor Collection 2.0 creates beautiful, lightened ends that help make her appear brighter without compromising her long locks.” – Tracey Cunningham

TREND #3

THE KHLOE EFFECT

“In a world where highlights have taken hold, there is something so refreshing and elegant about having rich, all-over color. It makes a statement!” For looks like Victoria Secret Model, Taylor Hill’s try “Redken’s new Chromatics Ultra Rich shades to create a cool, monochromatic look that delivers incredible shine.” – Tracey Cunningham

PHILIPPE MODEL
 PARIS
 The hottest shoes you need now

YOU'VE NEVER SEEN ANYTHING LIKE THESE SUPER STUNNING, ECLECTICALLY CHIC SHOES.

Philippe Model Paris is the name to know and has a long list of celebrity fans from Gwen Stefani, Sarah Jessica Parker to Sharon Stone and Rita Ora. With Art nouveau- inspired designs their unique innovation focuses primarily on luxury, comfort and style, Philippe Model has become one of the most coveted shoe for every woman's wardrobe; a stylish staple where no detail is too decadent. It's time to lace up your sexy flats and step into the new season with these eye catching pairs you will want to slip into now.

The innovation brought to Paris by French designer Philippe Model in the Eighties meets with the eclectic and visionary talent of Paolo Gambato, the designer who has been creative director at this fashion brand since 2008. Here, the classic tradition enjoys the enhancement of Italian craftsmanship in the concept of the iconic and sophisticated Elastique line and in the famous daytime footwear bearing the hand-stitched shield as its hallmark of quality and "sartorial" luxury.

For Philippe Model, inspiration may lie concealed anywhere. So every detail is to be seen and interpreted with extreme sensibility and respect. A vision characterized by abstract scenarios and urban architectures is not without sincere affection for materials, inherited in its purest form and modeled by artisanal expertise in line with the values and traditions of its country of origin. This complex labour of research is accompanied by the irresistible pull of art in an intimate and experimental sphere in which individual genius is constantly interacting with innovation.

What was the greatest influence behind the line's creation?

Philippe Model was able to elevate the traditional concept of a gym shoe by using high-end materials that were previously reserved for exclusive products or special occasions. Experimentation with noble materials, combined with a fluid aesthetic and increasingly rare craft techniques, gives the urban avant-garde an extraordinarily genuine and unconventional product. Made with meticulous care in Italy.

Which design elements are the most important to you?

From the cutting of the hides to the manual construction of the sole, every single detail plays its part in transforming a Philippe Model shoe into a marriage of comfort and design. The small differences between one shoe and another should be seen as the end result of manual procedures that cannot be reduced to aseptic industrial production and standardization of style. Variety of expressive idioms and concepts generates harmonies and distortions, possibilities and pleasing risks. Apparent contrasts in form and mode of use allow each of the collections to address the market with its own expressive charge and high degrees of personalization

What makes Philippe Model shoes so unique?

Every model is the fruit of instinct and unconventional content. Freedom in the creative phase is backed up by rigorous analysis of each product, whose wearability must be in line with precise parameters to achieve the highest levels of comfort. Superb craftsmanship, impeccable materials and technological innovation are brought to bear on every item of footwear to produce genuine richness and a sharp focus on everything involving beauty and experimentation.

Best Sellers.

Classic sneakers are the iconic daytime shoes bearing the hand-stitched shield on the side as their hallmark of Italian handmade tradition and "sartorial" luxury. Of the new Spring Summer 2016 models, Classic Lakers represents the new generation Philippe Model. Inspired by that basic concept, it brings innovation to the sole (double) and the materials, which are in tenuous colours. Volume is generous but not at the expense of the aesthetic, thus maintaining a functional design with a light touch.

"The Classic Lakers model takes a step forward in the direction of higher volumes and distinctive content. A study of unpredictable geometry in which patent leather details and handstitched leather create a rich patchwork of light featuring countless phases of the moon".

Tell us about the latest collection?

The Philippe Model collection for Fall Winter 2016/17 senses the intimate bedrock of normality in classic and delicate nuances against which it sets the metallic richness of gold and silver, symbolizing a forceful and emotive aesthetic. In both these stylistic choices, the shoe's athletic spirit is modulated in favour of increasingly refined urban geometries in which creativity becomes a tangible presence.

Spring Must-Haves.

Strip shoes are a tribute to Paris and introduce a new sport-luxe concept applied to the world of sneakers and is an expression of an urban, minimalist-leaning culture that employs simple and immediate language to communicate emotional messages in contemporary atmospheres. With the Lakers 70's inspired basketball shoes, Philippe Model takes a journey into the past reconstructed with innovations from the present thanks to the use of top quality leathers and unconventional techniques. The polkadot Tropez reflects the creativity of this multifaceted shoe. It's a chic, feminine alternative with metallic textures to go with daytime outfits combining sophistication and total comfort. The azure of the sporty chic nylon fabric is delicate, while the eye-catching silver polka dot laminated suede instills a sense of dynamism.

Modeliste: What's next for the line

Noah is a new shoe for Fall Winter 2016/17 Collection that opts for an eye-catching upper in hammered leather – which also covers the handmade midsole - and a contrasting serrated white outsole.

A MOMENT OF TRUTH

Truth Devour is an Australian born novelist who is best known for her book, Wantin, the first of her trilogy. With her passion for writing, she leads us on an inspirational journey of exciting twists and intrigues, esoteric experiences, honest portrayals, and epic worldly adventures. Modeliste caught up with Truth, and this is what we learned about this beautiful Australian writer whose books have brought her instant worldwide fame.

Q&A's

How did you come up with your Pen Name?

The pen name Truth Devour was taken from my life philosophy. Having grown up in an environment where 'white lies' were deemed to be an acceptable social norm and indeed encouraged. In my personal circles, I am known for saying, "Devour thy own truth. Lie to all others if you feel you must but to thy own self be true."

Where were you born?

I was born in Melbourne, Australia. My parents are eastern European immigrants who entered the lucky country in 1970. I became the unplanned surprise that arrived later that same year.

When did you start writing stories? How did your passion for writing begin?

I wrote a series of short stories when I was in my mid teens. The stimulus to put pen to paper back then was largely driven by episodes of tragedy and my need to work through the process. In terms of my passion for writing, it's always been there in the form of poetry and writing lyrics. I was approximately eighteen years old when I completed my first novel. I have never really stopped writing since. Creative expression is very much an integral part of who I am.

What has been the greatest influences on your writings?

Life experience is definitely a key influence. I love to travel and have always enjoyed my somewhat unique perspective on the world around me. It's the delta between my interpretation of a situation which provides a point of interest and depth to my writing.

When you sit down to write, do you have a certain method? Favorite place to write? How do you let your ideas flow onto paper?

Setting out to write a new piece is always an exciting journey. It usually starts with me telling myself a story. I have an inner monologue occurring. There are random visuals of scenes that appear in the forefront of my mind as I hear my own voice narrate. I relax and listen. Usually, a couple of weeks into this process I feel compelled to begin to write. Once I start, I don't stop until the first draft is done. The words fall out of me as I listen to my voice tell me what is happening. I personally find I get better results and a more satisfactory experience if I remove myself from the comfort of familiar surroundings. I tend to travel to different places when I write. I do this so my senses are hyper stimulated by a new environment, the culture, and cuisine.

What was the inspiration behind your latest Trilogy?

The idea for the enigma series was driven by my desire to create a strong female heroine whose life experiences are relatable enough for the readers to be engaged to follow the main protagonist Talia Jacobs along her journey of unplanned twists and turns. In essence, I didn't want to encourage the cliché of a woman needing to be 'saved' nor requiring a 'happily ever after.' This series is created with a full spectrum of life experiences and its associated challenges.

Tell us about the Trilogy.

The three books Wantin, Unrequited and Sated are a chronicle written in the first person of a young girl named Talia Jacobs, who from the age of six embarks on a life that positions her to either crumble under the weight of the burdens that are placed or to utilize her experiences as a crux to define who she is and how she fits into the world. The readers walk along side Talia, facing the challenges with her across her lifetime. It covers aspects of the fantastical in the sense of incorporating cultural based esoteric experiences such as voodoo and witchcraft while covering touch points of erotic undertones as tasteful descriptive during her coming of age and phases of sexual exploration. It's more than just an adult contemporary love story. It's an epic life story.

What 3 words would you use to describe your writing style?

Engaging Diverse
On the fringe

Born in Australia, what are your favorite things about down under?

Australia has some of the most magnificent coastline beaches I have ever had the blessing to walk on. It's hard to fathom how big and beautiful this place is until you grab a swag and go on a 'walkabout' across the land. The flora and fauna in this country is truly spectacular. I was lucky that I grew up in a family of avid campers. I feel at peace in the middle of an Australian bush landscape, inhaling the smell of eucalyptus from gum leaves, cooking a damper in the roaring fire while glancing up at a billion twinkling stars in the open night skies. It's magic.

Aside from keys, wallet and mobile phone what are 3 things you always carry with you in your handbag?

My iPad, an Instax Polaroid camera and my flip video camera. I like to be ready to capture the moment in any form that fits.

Best advice you've ever received?

There was a widower of ethnic origin in her mid seventies that lived in the same street as me, in a tough neighborhood. The local kids threw bricks at her house, yelled abuse, they were modeling off their ill mannered parent's choice to ostracize her for being different. I was around ten years old when we first became friends. Across the years, I would visit her house at least once a week. She would teach me how to grow vegetables by the cycle of the moon and hold me enchanted with her endless stories about the secret life of trees. I recall asking her one day why she chose to trust me given everyone else had been so cruel. Her response: Never let other people's behavior define who you are.

Greatest success or achievement thus far?

I truly believe the best is yet to come, so ask me this question again in two years.

If you could meet one other author in the present time or throughout history, who would that be?

I'd meet him presently,
Or go back in history,
I'd walk forward, sideways,
backwards,
Hands up,
Hands down,
In a circle,
I'd go around,
Climb up a rope,
Or swing from a noose,
Which author would it be?
I'd say Dr Seuss.

What's next for you?

Honestly, I feel blessed with all the wonderful opportunities presenting themselves at the moment. The script for Wantin, the first book in the Enigma trilogy, is in the process of being finalized. There are big things coming for this series, watch this space. I've just completed Insurrection which is part of the Soliloquy's Labyrinth five series. I aim to have it ready for release within a month.

Why do you love reading Modeliste Magazine?

My ultimate weakness is the travel section which I won't deny is almost always the part of the magazine I go to first. I've amassed quite a list of places I want to visit or re-visit thanks to Modeliste. I'm a real fan of the couture section as well. The layout and coverage of events are always on point.

SPOTLIGHT ON LOS CABOS

Where the Pacific Ocean meets the Sea of Cortez is a travel destination unlike any other. A magical place where the desert meets miles and miles of magical beaches and the combination of sun, surf, outdoor activities, and nightlife is intoxicating. Where cultural tradition meets modern sensibilities and satiates a multitude of traveler needs and expectations. Los Cabos, Mexico awaits.

Planning a family vacation, a wedding or honeymoon, a gathering of friends or a business meeting? Look no further than Baja California Sur.

Los Cabos is comprised of two distinct towns, energized Cabo San Lucas and historic San Jose del Cabo, linked by 20 miles of beautiful beach front resorts.

The destination's natural beauty shines and exhilarates. Nature enthusiasts will relish the spectacular rock formations, bird sanctuaries, and natural flora and fauna, while activity junkies delight in the region's plethora of adrenaline-generating options ranging from golf at some of the world's best golf courses, zip line adventures, dune buggy excursions, hiking, and water activities including sport fishing, diving, boating, jet skiing, parasailing and more.

DINING & NIGHTLIFE

Dining and nightlife also abound in Los Cabos, with everything from authentic family eateries to notable fine-dining. A few dining favorites include Sunset da Mona Lisa in Cabo San Lucas. Perched on a cliff overlooking the Bay of Cabo San Lucas with an exceptional view of the famous Arch at Land's End, the restaurant features fresh seafood and Italian cuisine in a romantic setting, perfect for weddings and anniversaries. And, for a truly unique experience near San Jose del Cabo is Flora Farms, an all-organic, 150 acre farm and restaurant serving the freshest of produce and meals to guests. Freshly harvested ingredients and fresh baked breads make their way to the menu for a true farm-to-table experience.

WHERE TO STAY

As a home base, we recommend Sheraton Hacienda del Mar Golf & Spa Resort. A sanctuary unto itself, this spectacular 270 guest room destination resort is located midway between Cabo San Lucas and San Jose del Cabo.

Of course, a trip to Mexico is not complete without a sampling of the country's native tequilas. The resort's Bar La Suerte offers more than 100 brands of tequila. Savor the flavors in a classic margarita or a tequila sunrise, and relax on the patio of the tequila estate-inspired bar.
